

Accreditation Scheme for Management System Certification Bodies

What is the scheme about?

The Accreditation Scheme for Management System Certification Bodies ensures that a certification body's framework of processes and procedures is reliable and impartial.

Who can be accredited?

All management system certification bodies can apply for this accreditation scheme. The programmes related to this accreditation scheme include:

- Anti-Bribery Management System
- Asset Management System
- Business Continuity Management System
- End-of-Life ICT Equipment Management System
- Energy Management System
- Environmental Management System
- Food Safety Management System
- Good Distribution Practice for Medical Devices
- Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point-based Food Management System
- Information Security Management System
- Learning Service Providers
- Medical Device Quality Management System
- Multi-Tiered Cloud Computing Security Management System
- Occupational Health and Safety Management System
- Quality Management System
- Water Efficiency Management System

What are the criteria?

Management System Certification Bodies are accredited based on:

- ISO/IEC 17021-1 Conformity assessment: Requirements for bodies providing audit and certification of management systems – Part 1: Requirements

Benefits

- Increase the level of confidence in the integrity of your certifications
- Meet prevailing industry standards and best practices
- Improve your operational performance

Visit
www.sac-accreditation.gov.sg to find out more.